

STRONGER TOGETHER

Family & Friends: An Addiction Support Group

Grandparent Caregivers Meeting

Caring for grandchildren who are impacted by parental addiction.

Being a grandparent can be one of the most joyful and rewarding experiences in your life. But that experience changes when you have primary or supplemental care of grandchildren as a result of family addiction. The stress and challenges of the situation can feel overwhelming.

Stronger Together: Grandparents is a support group for people like yourself. It's an opportunity to learn more about addiction and its impact on families. You'll meet a community of people willing to share knowledge, resources, and experiences. You'll benefit from their encouragement and support in building a healthy, safe environment for you and your grandchildren.
